EXCESS
INVENTORY

We offer various services to market and manage your excess inventory

- Lot Purchasing

You immediately solve your excess situation by selling it to Electronic Direct for a defined price

- The Consignment Model

Using Electronic Direct's existing market access, parts are marketed for the client with a defined profit split. The inventory is kept in an Electronic Direct warehouse but remains your property.

- Pure Marketing

We also offer a service in which we market your inventory. The goods remain in your possession during this process.
